CU*Answers Adds Electronic Document Strategy Resource

Grand Rapids, Michigan – March 2nd, 2010

CU*Answers, a 100% credit union-owned CUSO known for providing its flagship CU*BASE processing services, has recently announced the hiring of John Beauchamp as Electronic Document Strategies Manager.

Mr. Beauchamp joins CU*Answers with years of electronic document experience, working previously as the Director of Operations for COWWW Software, and recently in the same role for CU*Answers' sister CUSO, eDOC Innovations. In his previous roles he managed Client Service and Implementation teams, and helped hundreds of credit unions with their electronic document strategies.

As Electronic Document Strategies Manager, John is available to help credit unions craft an e-Document strategy tailored to the individual needs of credit unions by wading through concerns such as how to get started, improving an existing system, discussing vault choices, warranties, costs and implementation.

For information on the e-Document solutions available to CU*BASE clients, access the new e-Document website at <http://edocs.cuanswers.com>.
