eDOC Innovations Promotes CU Growth

MIDDLEBURY, VT and MIDWAY, UT – June 16th, 2010

eDOC Innovations, an e-document management CUSO, recently collaborated with newly-chartered East River Development Alliance Federal Credit Union on their Check21 strategy. ERDAFCU, the 2nd credit union chartered in 2009, opened its doors to the communities in Queens District and New York City in April of 2010.

According to eDOC, they provided the start-up with the hardware and software to launch CheckLogic, the CUSO's Check21 solution, gratis as a scholarship award.

“eDOC Innovations is glad to have assisted ERDA with its Check21 solution,” comments Bret Weekes, President/CEO of eDOC Innovations. “East River exemplifies the credit union enthusiasm for developing innovative ways to serve natural members. We welcome them to the cuasterisk.com network and the credit union industry.”
